Gannon University
Accreditation History

First accredited: October 1978
Next review: March 2027
Maximum class size: 58
Page 1 of 2

September 2017 (July Meeting)
The commission accepted the website update of all costs related to the program. No further information requested.

The commission reviewed the report regarding the website update of costs. Additional information (update website with clearly identified total costs) due June 21, 2017.

March 2017 (January Meeting)

September 2013
Program Change: Change in class size (48 to 58), effective January 1, 2016. The commission approved the proposed change. No further information requested.

September 2010
The commission accepted the report addressing standards A1.07h and B7.03e (3rd edition). No further information requested.

March 2010

September 2009
The commission accepted the report regarding new faculty. No further information requested.

March 2009
Program Change: Change in aggregate enrollment (120 to 144). The commission accepted the report. Additional information (new faculty) due July 1, 2009.

September 2007
The commission accepted the report regarding program announcements and student health records.

March 2007
The commission accepted the report regarding educational objectives and standards A5.1, C2.2c, d, C4.1b and D1.2 (2nd edition). Additional information (program announcements and clarification regarding student health records) due July 13, 2007.
Program Change: Change in length of program (87 to 105 credits), effective August 2007. The commission acknowledged the proposed change. Maximum Student Capacity: 120 (due to increase in length of program). No further information requested.

March 2006

September 2002
The commission accepted the report regarding learning objectives for patient care in geriatrics. No further information requested.

September/December 2001
The commission accepted the report regarding the university officials and standards A5.17b, A5.8, B1.4 and B6.2f (2nd edition). Additional information (learning objectives for patient care in geriatrics) due August 1, 2002.

March 2001

March 1998
Program Change: Change in degree awarded (baccalaureate to master’s curriculum), effective Fall 1999. The commission acknowledged the proposed change. Additional information (sequencing of curriculum) due by February 1, 1999.